TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Payment Terms and Conditions:

Advance Payment:

A non-refundable advance payment of 30% of the total project cost is required to initiate the project.

Mid-Project Payment:

50% of the total project cost is due at the midpoint of the project, upon reaching the agreed project milestones.

Final Payment:

The remaining 20% of the total project cost is due upon delivery of the final product or prior to the handoff of all final documentation.

2. Communication & Support

The package includes up to 3 scheduled sync/support calls via mutually agreed platforms such as Zoom, Google Meet, or WhatsApp Business.

Any additional calls or urgent discussions outside these scheduled slots may incur extra charges.

All communication will be conducted professionally and in a timely manner through mutually agreed communication channels.

3. Ownership & Licensing

All deliverables will be the sole property of the client upon full payment.

Reuse, redistribution, or resale of any part of the deliverables or documentation by the client or any third party without written permission from the provider is strictly prohibited.

4. Warranty & Revisions

Minor, non-functional revisions related to documentation or explanations are supported for up to 7 days after final delivery.

This agreement does not cover ongoing maintenance, technical support, or performance warranties unless explicitly agreed upon in writing through a separate maintenance contract.

5. Termination

Either party may terminate the agreement in writing prior to project commencement without penalty.

If the project is terminated after work has begun, the initial advance payment is forfeited.

Any work completed until termination shall remain the property of the provider unless otherwise agreed.

All payments made after project commencement are non-refundable.

6. Confidentiality

Both parties agree to keep all project-related information, materials, documents, and communications strictly confidential.

No sensitive information shall be shared with third parties without mutual written consent.

By proceeding with the project, the client agrees to abide by the above terms and conditions
